Местоимения little, few имеют одно и то же значение – мало. Однако существует принципиальная разница в том, когда употребляют little, few в предложениях, хотя в русском языке такого правила нет.

Little употребляют с неисчисляемыми существительными, например с такими как milk, salt; с существительными, обозначающими эмоции: happiness, love. Few используется в случае с исчисляемыми существительными, такими как a car, a house, a man.

Если возникает вопрос нужно ли использовать little или few подумайте, можно ли существительное поставить во множественное число на русском: например, можно сказать 3 дома, но нельзя сказать 2 воздуха. Однако, всегда лучше проверить можно ли поставить необходимое слово во множественном числе на английском.

We bought few vegetables and little milk yesterday. – Мы купили мало овощей (исчисляемое) и мало молока (неисчисляемое) вчера.
